

to steady
persecuted dressed to message of truest sym

of the New Testament be divided, and how many books in each section?

2. (a) What are the synoptic gospels?

(b) Why so called?

3. (a) Give the author's analysis of the book of Matthew, stating five characteristics.

(b) Give the analysis of Mark, stating four characteristics.

(c) The same with Luke, stating six characteristics.

(d) The same with John, stating five characteristics.

4. (a) When was the Book of the Acts most probably written?

(b) What period of time is covered by it and what is its general theme?

5. Name six men and two women prominently mentioned in the Acts.

6. What is an "Epistle?"

7. (a) To whom were the general epistles written?

(b) What is the special emphasis of each writer?

8. Write a short statement about James and the people to whom he wrote.

9. (a) Tell of the conditions in Asia Minor when Peter wrote his first epistle.

(b) What was his object in writing?

10. (a) To whom was Peter's second epistle addressed?

(b) What was the end sought?

11. When did John write his three letters?

12. (a) What are the general contents (briefly) of First John?

(b) Second John?

(c) Third John?

13. When was the Epistle of Jude written and for what purpose?

DIVISION III. (Continued)

Sec. 4--New Testament, Pauline Epistles and Revelation

1. Name some of Paul's special qualifications as a writer of New Testament books.

2. When did he write his epistles?

3. Make a brief statement of the conditions existing in the churches at

(a) Rome.

(b) Corinth.

(c) Galatia.

(d) Ephesus.